Centennial Excursions.

Two enterprising citizens of Raleigh are endeavoring to get up an excursion to run from here to Philadelphia some time between the 1st and the 10th prox., the fare for the round trip to be about $13. All of the arrangements, however, have not been consummated. The North Carolina Railroad, (or rather the Richmond & Danville,) speaks of running one from here about the same time. As to the excursion of the Knights of Pythias, this railroad has offered to carry the members of the order, and all others who wish to go, to and from Philadelphia for $14.50, but the Knights had already contracted with the Raleigh & Gaston for tickets at $15.00.

The Meeting at Jonesboro.

Our friends had a glorious meeting at Jonesboro, Moore county, on Thursday. The Tilden and Vance Club, of Fayetteville, had gone up, accompanied by the Fayetteville Cornet Band, which began the exercises with music. A cannon which had been brought from Fayetteville, was fired twice, and the speaking was opened by T. P. Devereux, Esq., who addressed the assemblage for the space of 45 minutes. He was followed by R. H. Battle, Esq, and he by Capt. S. A. Ashe. The speaking was concluded by W. C. Troy, Esq., of Fayetteville.

Every one of the addresses is spoken of by persons who were present, in terms highly laudatory, and it is said that all of them absorbed the attention of the people, and created a fine impression. Mr. Devereux's opening was exceedingly happy, and created an enthusiasm from the beginning; Mr. Battle's speech was particularly convincing and clear; Mr. Ashe gave facts and figures which were undeniable, and argued from them the necessity of a change; Mr. Troy closed with a humorous and sensible speech, which caused the crowd to disperse with the best of feeling.

The Democrats of Moore are solid and buoyant. They are satisfied that the result in November as to their county, will be a larger majority than they have ever given, and will be entirely creditable to them.

Quite a number of ladies were present at the speaking at Jonesboro. A nice stand had been erected and decked, and the preparations for the occasion were in all respects complete. The crowd present was estimated at from 1,000 to 1,200.

If you want a good cup of coffee go to Woollcott's and buy his fresh roasted coffee at 30 cents per lb. We have tried it. *

THE CANDIDATES AT STATESVILLE.

IMMENSE OUTPOURING OF THE PEOPLE.

VANCE GAINS A COMPLETE TRIUMPH!

A Good Report from Iredell and the West.

[Special to the News.]

STATESVILLE, N. C., August 11.—Governor Vance's canvass to this point, through Rutherford, Polk, Henderson, Buncombe, Madison, Yancey, Mitchell, Watauga, Ashe, Wilkes and Alexander, has been remarkably successful. Extraordinary demonstrations of affection on the part of the people, have greeted him everywhere, publicly and privately, whilst large and enthusiastic crowds have attended the discussions. The best judges say that he will gain two thousand votes over Merrimon's vote in 1872, in the above counties. The utmost courtesy and good temper have prevailed between him and Judge Settle. The crowds have been universally orderly. There is an immense gathering here to day. Charlotte has just arrived, one thousand strong, with a brass band, and Salisbury and Morganton are coming.

[SECOND DISPATCH.]

3 P. M.—The speaking is just over. Five thousand people were present, and the Court House grounds and streets are full. Everybody is jubilant. Vance was completely victorious over Judge Settle in every particular. Settle received two small boquets; Vance a dozen immense ones. Everybody was orderly and quiet. Vance was towering in his strength, cutting right and left into Radicalism and revenuers, while Settle was hacked and long-faced. Hester's garbled letters, and Brown's stolen Wilkes letter, were his principal argument. The whole town is ringing with Vance. The people here do not talk about less than one thousand majority in Iredell for the Democratic candidates, and Iredell has never yet failed to do her duty.

Meeting of the Tilden-Vance Club, Last Night.

A regular meeting of the Tilden-Vance Club was held last night at its hall over Gulley's store, and about twenty names were added to the already large number of members, now making the membership about 387.

A resolution was introduced stating that, as the hall now used by the club is too small to accommodate comfortably the number who attend the meetings, a committee be appointed to wait on the Board of Aldermen and ascertain if Metropolitan Hall can be rented for the use of the club. Adopted.

As an impression has gone abroad that none but young men are allowed to join the club, the constitution was amended by striking out "young" in the title, the club hereafter to be known and styled "The Tilden-Vance Club, of Raleigh Township;" and all Democrats, and those who desire to renounce the Republican party, are invited to join.

The Executive Committee of the club was instructed to communicate with the chairman of each township Executive Committee in the county, and request them to organize clubs in their respective townships as early as practicable, that each township may be represented in a convention to be held in Raleigh later in the campaign, and to offer such assistance to said townships in the organization of their clubs, as may be deemed necessary.

It was moved and adopted that a committee be appointed to wait on Major Seaton Gales and requst him to address the club at its next meeting, (Friday night,) which the public are invited to attend.

Election Notice.

The Clerk of the Board of County Commissioners has issued the call for the election to be held on the 7th of November. The officers to be elected are: ten Presidential electors; seven State officers; member of Congress from the 4th district; Senate and four Representatives from Wake county; and county officers for said county. At the same time, the amendments to the Constitution of the State, proposed by the constitutional Convention of 1875, will be submitted to the people for ratification or rejection. There will be six tickets and as many ballot-boxes.

Feeling Better.

Now that the Good Templars have adjourned, the officials about the State House can breathe more freely. For the past three days none of them have been able to step down street for a moment and return wiping their mouths, without being made to feel that one hundred and fifty people were watching them from the windows of the hall of the House and saying, "there goes a poor wretch who is a slave to the demon intemperance. John Barleycorn will soon walk his log, and he will shortly lay down in the grave and intoxicate all the worms."

Encouraging News from Johnston.

A gentleman who was in the city yesterday from Johnston county, gives cheering reports of the political warfare which is being waged there at present. He says the county is safe for the Democratic candidates if our people only continue until the day of election the work which they are now so vigorously prosecuting. Maj. Smith is badly "hacked." He has been exposed all over the county by Mr. P. M. Stewart, and his despondency is perceptible. Mr. Stewart has told everywhere in the county that at the beginning of the war he went to his father's bosom friend, and asked him whether or no he should go to the war. He was told, "yes; go, young man," and now that he bears upon him scars which he had been told would be to him the marks of honor, it is told that he inflicted them upon himself to keep out of battle; all this by that father's bosom friend, who is Bill Smith. He was charged by Mr. Stewart at Bentonsville with telling an "infamous lie," and though he writhed under the charge he bore it. He worked at a disadvantage all the time, because he had been exasperated and lost all self control.

Gen. Cox is just in receipt of a letter from J. C. Scarborough, Esq., our candidate for Superintendent of Public Instruction, which is highly encouraging in its nature. A great deal of work is being done in Johnston county by the Democrats, and by men who understand the business. Mr. Scarborough met Young at Barnes's, and replied to him, having secured a division of time. He does not think that either Young or Smith have made any impression in the county. Many men who were doubtful, and many who were open in their opposition to Vance, now come out and say they will vote and work for him. Mr. S. says that Capt. Davis will carry the county by 500 majority. Gen. Cox, who is more popular in Johnston than any man in the State, will speak at Selma on Saturday next, the 19th inst.

A Raleighite in a Mountain Court.

The Morganton Blade tells of Maj. Henry Miller, of this city, now superintendent of the convicts on the Western Railroad, being in court at Morganton last week. Some weeks ago he had a difficulty, growing out of politics, with Messrs. W. E. and Thos. Walton, Jr., and was arrested on the train and bound over to appear before the Mayor. He did so and the lawyers mixed His Honor up at such a rate that he got mad, bowed his back and said he didn't care a continental who fought or who didn't; as for him, he had issued his last paper of that kind, and if people didn't like it, they could go to where it was warmer. With that he up and left, and they turned the Major loose. Fighting in the West is a neat and inexpensive luxury.

Selling His Dog's Life.

During the recent dog killing, when the city was paying 50 cents apiece for unlicensed dogs delivered at the city pound, a young citizen one morning met a decrepid darkey lugging a lantern-jawed, slab sided, stump-tailed cur through the streets, and asked him where he was taking him. To the pound. He was asked whose dog it was, and responded in effect that he himself had the honor of proprietorship in the case mentioned. What was he going to do with him? Sell him and get shekels. He had been trying for three years to effect a sale, without result, and if it was thought that he was more valuable dead than alive, he must be sacrificed; and with this explanation, the old darkey moved on, to put the brute in the hands of the pound-keeper, whose tender mercies are cruelty.

The Ship "North Carolina."

It has been mentioned in the papers that there is a project on foot, to build in Liverpool a steamship to be called the "North Carolina," and that Mr. W. N. Hoet, of Wilmington, had written to Gov. Brogden for information concerning the coat-of-arms of the State. Col. Neathery, the Governor's Private Secretary, responded to him yesterday in a lengthy letter, conveying to him the entire history of the design, together with an accurate description thereof. The coat-of-arms is emblematic, representing Liberty and Plenty. These emblems were explained fully, the time at which the design was adopted, the originator, &c. It is proposed to put this upon the vessel, with the name of the State.

Cotton Movements for the Week.

Receipts for the week ending yesterday, the close of the cotton week, were 174 bales; receipts for same week last year, 84 bales; increase in receipts for week this year, 90 bales; whole receipts from the 1st of September, 1875, to date, 39,239 bales; receipts for same time last year, 34,926 bales; increase in receipts to date this year, 5,313 bales.

The market was very active during the week; it advanced and closed quiet at 11½c. for best grades Same week last year, 13½c. Good rains prevailed during the week, and materially improve the prospects, except in some localities where they were excessive.

Adjourned.

The Grand Lodge of Good Templars adjourned, yesterday afternoon, after a pleasant and harmonious session of three days. Some of the delegates left, yesterday, and the remainder will be off to-day. We trust that the session which has just ended, will conduce to the benefit of the cause the promotion of which called it together.

Speakers in the Field.

Gen. W. R. Cox will speak to-day at Milbourne, where a club is to be organized, and Col. T. C. Fuller will speak to-day at Franklin, where a club is to be formed also. Gen. Cox and Hon. J. J. Davis, will speak at Nashville, Nash county, on the 15th inst., and Gen. Cox at Selma, Johnston county, on the 19th.

A Bogus Agent on the Rounds.

We understand that a man was in Louisburg last week, selling snuff and perhaps other things, and representing himself as an agent of the Raleigh NEWS, the Durham Tobacco Plant, and other papers. This man is no agent of the NEWS, and people who pay him money will but lose it.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

Injudicious Campaign Work—Valuable Suggestions.

RALEIGH, N. C., Aug. 11, '76.

Mr. Editor:—Criticism is an easy task. One can, without difficulty, find fault with the doings of an action, and at the same time be unable to amend the matter. I, therefore, hope no hypocritical motive will be attributed to me for finding fault with the plan of campaign so far conducted by most of our candidates on the State ticket.

I see from our papers that four of the candidates, Messrs. Jarvis, Kenan, Englehard and Scarborough, have been canvassing in Nash county, and I doubt not their work has been effective, as far as there was material to be operated upon, but when we consider the character of the county, how thoroughly canvassed it has been heretofore, and how well it has voted, does it not seem a waste of energy? It would be well if all of our candidates could go to every county in the State before the election, but certainly the first duty should be to bend all efforts towards weak and doubtful points. For instance, why did not two, at least, of the gentlemen above named go to Johnston county to meet Billy Smith and Ike Young? Johnston has been coquetted with by Smith so often that perhaps he has lost some of his power, but still we have reason to believe that he is popular with a large class of her people, and we should have some of our most efficient candidates upon the field to counteract any baneful delusions he might produce, instead of leaving him and Young the entire field undisputed except by Waddell, Stewart and other of our gallant local speakers.

If this is to be the plan of the campaign, our gallant standard-bearer, while he is devoting himself to a manly hand-to-hand contest with his opponent, may find his work destroyed for want of vigilance in his lieutenants. Let our candidates meet their foes, and hurl back upon them their false statements and professions, and when not thus engaged let them be at diligent work where work is most needed, and there is but little doubt of a triumphant issue. But if we are to spend our force where it will prove of no avail, and leave the doubtful counties to be manipulated by our unscrupulous foes, we had about as well furl our banner and close the contest. But we have too much at stake for this. Our cause is that of civilization; it is the people's cause, and should not be allowed to be frittered away by injudicious plans of campaign. The issue calls for the utmost wisdom and energy, and there is no doubt that wise work will bring us our much coveted results. X.

Currituck—Good Party Organization And Good Crops.

CURRITUCK, C. H., N. C.
Aug. 7, 1876.

Mr. Editor:—We have no Tilden-Vance Clubs in this county; we have no towns or villages; in fact there is no necessity, as our whole county will constitute a club. We have so few white Rads in this portion of the county that they may be termed exceptions, but the few, by night meetings and various devices, manage to control the larger part of the negro vote. I think there can be no doubt, but we will roll up the usual majority for Vance and Tilden in the approaching election. Yeates, too, will carry the county by a large majority, notwithstanding it is the birth-place, and long the home of Lind-say. It will require considerable effort for the latter to reconcile the negroes to the course he pursued two years ago, in so ably aiding in the defeat of Judge Albertson.

Col. Coke, of Elenton, and Wm. C. Mercer, of Currituck, are the candidates in the 1st Senatorial District, and H. E. Baxter, candidate for the lower house. I think all will receive increase majorites on the election of two years ago.

Under the influence of the late refreshing showers, all crops—particularly corn and cotton—are as promising as I ever saw them. We have not much cotton, but the amount we have is as good—that is the growth—as we can desire. W. H. C.

Politics and Crops in Lincoln.

NORTH BROOK, Aug. 5, 1876.

Mr. Editor:—The prospects of crops in this county are tolerably good There is but one Tilden-Vance Club in active operation in the county, and the number of its members I do not know. Other clubs will be organized shortly. The prospects for the election in November, are good. I think this county will roll up a larger majority for the Conservative party, by several hundred than it ever has since the war.

Our County Convention came off on the 1st Thursday in this month, and a more unanimous feeling never prevailed in the county. B. C. Cobb is the nominee for representative, and all our present incumbents were renominated for county offices. We had a large crowd out at the Convention, and an excellent speech was delivered by Col. Steele, our candidate for Congress Peace and prosperity seem to prevail in this county, and the people seem to be alive for Tilden, Vance, and all the nominees of the party. Yours truly,

T. W. A.

Crops and Politics in Orange.

DURHAM, N. C., Aug. 9, 1876.

Mr. Editor:—The wheat crop in Orange, is good, and likewise the corn; oats, not more than half a crop made, and tobacco, not more than one-tenth of a crop, now standing, and that is sorry. Cotton is looking well, I understand. Durham has the only Tilden and Vance Club in the county. The present political feeling in Orange has never been better for the Conservatives. Our candidates for the Legislature are Maj. Graham, in the Senate, and Calvin E. Parrish and John Knox Hughes, in the House. The Republicans have no candidates in the field yet. Our ticket will be elected in November by at least 600 majority. There are some radical converts in my neighborhood, or probably the term penitent would be more appropriate, as they say they will not vote at all in November. Yours truly, L.

Democratic Club Badges.

The Badge Committee of the Tilden-Vance Club of this city have just secured at no little expense a fine steel engraving of our Presidential candidates, and the busts of Tilden and Hendricks now grace the badges as adopted by the Raleigh Club for the use of clubs throughout the State. As our facilities are now very extensive, we are prepared to fill orders for badges at $10 per hundred. Send ten cents and stamp for sample, etc., to "Chairman Badge Committee Tilden-Vance Club," Raleigh, N. C.

THE DEMONSTRATION in Wilmington was a grand affair, worthy in every respect of that noble city.

THE ALAMANCE Gleaner has suspended. During its brief career it rendered efficient service to the Democratic cause, and its departure from our midst will be lamented.

THE LETTER of the Democratic Executive Committee of North Carolina to the Democratic Central Committee of Kansas which we publish to-day, is a masterly and valuable campaign document. It is an overwhelming refutation of the Radical slanders against Vance. All honor to the pen that traced this thorough vindication of our standard bearer!

A REPUBLICAN PAPER in this State boasts that the Radical tax-payers and voters are prompt in the discharge of their duties. They are "'Charlie at the wheel,' every time—in paying taxes as well as voting"—remarks this jubilant sheet. It should have added, that they are "Charlie at the wheel," too, when the time comes for stealing the taxes.

THE NEW YORK HERALD says:

"We think a majority of the people would like to elect Mr. Tilden and try what a change would do for the country. There is a longing for change—to be free from military Presidents, to see all the rings broken, to have a general clearing up of the old mansion. In this desire many Republicans share."

We commend this language from an impartial source to the honest Republicans of North Carolina—those among them who really desire good government,—and have no immediate chance of getting an office from their party, now that the Revenue Ring runs the machine.

THE HENDRICKS PLAN.

"It is a long lane that knows no turning." The thinking men of the North, are at last beginning to discover "the true way with the South." In a masterly article, the New York Herald shows "what was meant by conferring the suffrage upon four millions of persons just emancipated, without education, without property, without training in the exercise of citizenship, without a correct moral sense, and with no sense of public responsibility at all;" and demonstrates that the communities of the South could not have borne the evils we have endured with more patience than we have exhibited; and justly maintains that crimes of the Hamburg nature which happen in the South, are "the results of a long course of abuse begun and continued by unscrupulous and selfish Northern adventurers, who have, with the help of the Federal government, preyed upon Southern society, and who have not even had the courage and energy to punish these crimes of which their conduct has been the main cause."

The Herald concludes that the true way with the South is to "let non-interference have a trial." "Let us see," says the Herald, "what will happen if these adventurers can no longer call upon the Federal power to maintain them;" and adds, "that is the only cure."

That is not the only cure. The effects of Federal interference are entirely over-estimated by Northern politicians and journalists. The soldiers now have no calculable effect upon elections in the South. The troops stationed at Raleigh have no effect whatever upon our elections, State, County, or Municipal. We Democrats can have no serious objection to their presence.

The cure for the evils that afflict us, lies deeper than "Federal non-interference." The Hendricks plan is the only cure.

And what is the Hendricks plan? It is summed up in two words—WHITE SUPREMACY.

In his letter of acceptance Mr. Hendricks thinks the troubles in the South will not be settled until the Democrats are in power. Commenting upon this, the New York Herald justly says:

"The Republicans will tell us that what Mr. Hendricks means is that the Democrats will keep on shooting until they are in power. But this is not what he means. He sees clearly that THE WHITES MEAN TO RULE THE SOUTHERN STATES, and that peace will only come when they have asserted that right. Unless we take the plan of Boutwell and remand those States to their Territorial position (which is not to be tolerated) there will be no peace in the South until the plan of Mr. Hendricks is adopted. We may as well accept this fact. We cannot prevent it."

That is the whole question in a nut-shell. The white Virginians, Georgians, Alabamians, Texians, Arkansians, Tennesseeans, and Mississippians, have solved the problem. They rule those States; and PEACE PREVAILS. The negroes rule South Carolina and Louisiana, and there is NO PEACE.

Let North Carolinians, Democrats and Republicans, white people and colored, ponder over these things.

If we interpret aright the spirit of this campaign, in North Carolina, it is this: We, white men, have an unalterable conviction that negroes are unfit to control this or any other country. Experience, as well as our knowledge of that race, teaches us this. And we are determined to rule this State. The colored element, and the carpet-baggers, who make money by their votes, "may as well accept this fact."

SETTLE'S SILENCE.

Gov. Vance, at Burnsville, in the presence of the assembled multitude, asked Judge Settle, if he indorsed Gov. Holden in his suspension of the writ of habeas corpus? Judge Settle made no reply. He was as silent as one of those "dead corpuses" he spoke of in his speech at this point. He was, perhaps, ashamed to acknowledge his position on this question.

Gov. Vance next said to him, "You say some of the amendments are good: I ask you which they are?" He sat mute. Republicans voted in Convention for twenty-six out of the thirty amendments—thereby conceding their goodness. So Judge Settle either thinks these twenty-six propositions "good," or else, is at variance with the men who nominated him.

"How did the South get out of the Union?" was the next inquiry. Like the little boy the calf had run over, Thomas had "nothing to say."

Gov. Vance then wanted to know if the giving of the right of suffrage to the colored men of North Carolina was constitutional? The Judge had too great a regard for his brilliant judicial reputation, to answer.

"Was turning five legislators out of the Louisiana Legislature with the bayonet, right?" asked Gov. Vance. This minion of Grant's corrupt and tyranical administration, had not the boldness and manliness to condemn that act of high-handed military despotism. Like a political slave as he is, he did not dare express his honest convictions.

Our triumphant champion then put this question to him: "Was the election under the Canby Constitution Constitutional? and have no you held your office as Judge eight years under fraud?" He did not dare reply. Our reporter says the "silence was appalling."

Judge Settle's silence bears an entirely different construction from what he must suppose will be given it. These questions cannot be treated with contempt. They are not "side issues"—not by a jug-full; and the people demand an answer. And while he keeps his lips sealed, the old adage "that silence gives consent," will be applied to him, in regard to the corruption, extravagance, and lawlessness of his party.

OUR NEW LOCAL.

The press of the State has been very complimentary to Mr. Caldwell, the new local editor of this paper. In his behalf, to one and all of the brethren, we return thanks for the kindly notices given him.

Mr. Caldwell deserves all the good that has been said of him. He abides by the good old scriptural advice, "whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might," and has already achieved an enviable reputation as a journalist.

The Charlotte people thoroughly appreciate the services he rendered their city while he was engaged upon the local columns of the Observer. Among the testimonials rendered, none will be more valued by him than the following resolutions adopted at a meeting of the Hornet Fire Company several days ago:

Resolved 1st, That we learn with feelings of deep regret that Jos. P. Caldwell, late Local Editor of the Charlotte Observer, has severed his connection with that paper; that in his exchange to another field we extend to him our best wishes for his future success; and trust, that his career may be as brilliant in the future as his high character, sterling industry, and marked talents presaged while in our midst.

Resolved 2d That in him the Hornet Fire Company possessed a true and tried friend, and that during his residence in our city, all of his editorials and comments in regard to this company, were candid and truthful; and that we will be ever mindful of his many personal acts of kindness, both to the company, and to the individuals composing the same.

Resolved 3d, That we extend to him a most cordial invitation to visit us at any and all times that may be convenient to him, and in doing so, we extend him the hospitalities of our organization.

THE MURFREESBORO Enquirer tells of a shooting affray between a white man and a negro some days ago. The difficulty originated in the white man calling the black a "negro." This black man was very foolish. There is nothing to be ashamed of in the term Negro. It is the name given the African race, just as the term Caucasian is used to designate the white race; Mongolian, the yellow race; Malayan, the brown race, and American the red or Indian race. The word negro, is derived from niger, the Latin term for black; and is employed in the Italian, Spanish, and Portuguese languages, as well as in the English. It is not a term of reproach—and no "colored man," should be ashamed of it. By taking offense at it, he only shows his ignorance.

THE Ansonian says, there are piles of radical campaign documents from the North now at the express office. They came directed to the Chairman of the Republican State Executive Committee, and the State is to be flooded with them.

All the printed stuff in the world cannot convince the honest and thinking people people of North Carolina that the Republican party is not thoroughly corrupt. Checking the current of the Missis-ippi with straws, would be an easy task compared to the work of attempting to stay with lying documents, the grand tide of political sentiment which has set in for Vance and Tilden.

THE VOTE by which Belknap's so-called acquittal was brought about, was wholly made up of Republican members, with the single exception of Eaton, of Connecticut. The Republican party, as represented by the Senate, to use the language of the N. Y. Sun, "is then directly and indisputably responsible for the escape of this guilty man." Can the Republicans defend and justify this infamy before the people?

THE PUBLIC LEDGER is the title of a new Democratic daily recently established in New York, by J. Richard Lewellen & Co. It makes a bright start, and, if the whole country is not ruined by the Republicans, it will no doubt have a prosperous career. It flies as its motto,

"For the right that needs assistance,
Against the wrong that needs resistance;
For all the good that we can do."

—which will do very well for these times.

EVERYBODY complains of "hard times." In every branch of business there is unprecedented depression. The cause of this distress, is to be found in the corrupt administration of the national government, the enormous burden of taxation put upon the people, and to quote Tilden's language, "in the systematic and insupportable misgovernment imposed on the States of the South."

Fayetteville Gazette: By a recent decision the Supreme Court has reversed the action of the Superior Court of this county, which sentenced to death the negro Cato Potts for burglary on the Davis store.

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE.

Senator Bayard received the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws at the recent Commencement of Delaware State College.

Mr. Darwin is reading the last proofs of his new work, "The Results of Cross and Self-Fertilization in the Vegetable Kingdom."

The gifts of the late Mr. Baird, the wealthy iron founder of Scotland, to the Presbyterian Church of Scotland, amounted to $3,500,000.

Three brothers, sons of one of the Siamese twins, jointly cultivate a fine farm in Jackson county, Missouri, making a handsome profit on large crops of tobacco. They seldom refer to ther parentage, and this makes their nearest neighbors seem to be ignorant of their history.

Mr. L. H. Fitzhugh, who was some time ago dismissed from his position in the House of Representatives as doorkeeper, for what was, to say the least, an extraordinary act of indiscretion, has, through Governor Throckmorton, of Texas, presented a claim for his salary from the date of his dismissal to the first day of August.

General Dix's "boys in blue" are to be arrayed in a blue cape like that of an army overcoat, but waterproof, and a hat like that of the United States cavalry.—Congressman Platt a commission in the crops, contemplating absence from Virginia during the campaign. A. J. Hoffman, of Charleston, laments that "the most influential of our soldiers who have grown rich" in South Carolina "seem to be the most reticent to enter the organization."

POLITICAL NOTES.

Duplin Democrats claim that they will carry their county by 800 votes.

New York Sun: It is gratifying to find so many Republicans who recognize the ability of Mr. Tilden, and acknowledge that he is the fit man for President. Mr. Tilden's Republican vote in this city and State will be very large. He has won these Republicans over by sheer force of character and actual reforms.

Boston Post: Fort the loud-mouthed radical from Illinois, who has had more to say about the purity of the Republican party than almost any member of his party, is proved to have sold his vote for doorkeeper in the Forty second Congress for 100 copies of the Agricultural Report, The evidence taken before the Committee of Accounts is unimpeachable.

That the colored people of Kentucky have awakened to an appreciation of where their ture interests lie was strikingly illustrated in the Congressional election at Louisville Monday. A large colored vote was cast for Mr. Henry Watterson, the Democratic candidate, and this, too, in the face of the most strenuous efforts of the Republicans to unite the colored element against him.

A Democratic victory in Alabama was generally expected. The only question was as to its completeness. It is announced as "sweeping" in every part of the State, and as giving the Democrats a large majority in the Legislature. No doubt this will cause great joy in the Democratic camp, since they will regard it as in some measure foreshadowing the course of the Southern States in the Presidential election. Kentucky, too, is as Democratic as ever; in fact rather more so.—N. Y. Tribune.

NORTH CAROLINA.

A poor woman in Wilmington gave birth to a child upon the streets, during a storm.

The Boy's Courier is a handsome little 12 x 8½ paper, published monthly at Newberne.

Fayetteville Wide Awake: Business is beginning to "look up" in our town.—Hurrah for Tilden and Vance!!

Greensboro Patriot: Jerry Hedgepeth, a worthy citizen of High Point Township, died last Thursday in the 77th year of his age.

Greensboro Patriot: Salem and Winston were united to the world by telegraph last week. The office for the present is the railroad depot.

Yesterday a negro man employed on the W. & W. R. R. as a hand on a freight train had his left leg so badly crushed by the movement of the train at the depot in this city that amputation of the limb became necessary to save his life.

Winston Sentinel: Phillip James, son of William James, aged sixteen years, was killed by lightning on Sunday evening while on a visit to his grandfather, Baird Glidewell. The same flash of lightning knocked down and stunned another grand son of Mr. Glidewell.

Burke Blade: We are grieved to announce the death of Thomas J. Roberts, of Asheville, which occurred at the residence of his uncle, Mr. William Perkins, on John's river, Sunday morning the 6th inst. Mr. Roberts had been rapidly sinking with consumption for several months past, and his demise was, therefore, not unlooked for. He had just reached his twenty-fourth year.

TRUTH.

Democratic Executive Committee of North Carolina to the Democratic Central Committee of Kansas.

LETTER OF CHAIRMAN COX.

ROOMS DEMOCRATIC EX. COM., RALEIGH, Aug. 10, 1875.

Hon. John Martin, Chairman Democratic State Central Committee Topeka Kansas.

DEAR SIR:—Your letter of date July 26th. came during my absence at the north, and has my first attention on returning.

In respect to statements in Chicago Inter-Ocean, purporting to be a special report of the speech of Governor Vance in this city opening the campaign, wherein he is charged with declaring, "1st, That he is sorry he laid down his arms in 1865; 2nd, that he is in favor of re-enslaving the negro; and if that cannot be done at once, his idea is to adopt a plan which will bring about such a condition of things," I have to say these statements are wilfully and unqualifiedly false in every particular whatever. And I assure you that Governor Vance has no desire and no "plan to deprive the negro of educational privileges, to pay him low wages, to prevent him from purchasing real estate and deprive him of arms, ammunition, stock and agricultural implements."

Indeed, no such sentiments exist and no such purposes are entertained on the part of the democracy of North Carolina. If Governor Vance could have uttered what is above attributed to him, I do not hesitate to assure you that our executive committee would have at once demanded his resignation as a candidate of the democratic party.

Governor Vance, with all the leading men of the Democratic party in North Carolina, as well as the masses of our people, has accepted the political status of the negro in good faith, and the rights and privileges with which he has been invested we regard as fixed and irrevocable. Any desire or purpose to "re enslave," therefore, would be as preposterous as impracticable; and I do in all sincerity assure you that, if the Democrats of North Carolina could, to-morrow, have slavery again they would reject it.

Governor Vance, in common with all the prominent Democrats of the State, desires the education of the negro. We believe that every interest of our people demands that the negroes shall be educated up to the highest standard of intelligence possible for them, and to that end Governor Vance, as have all our people of prominence or means, has cheerfully contributed to the maintenance and support of their schools, churches, and societies for their moral and social improvement.

Respecting wages paid to the negroes in employment in this State, I beg to refer to the fact that hired labor with us has, since the war, commanded better prices than ever before, and continues to rule higher, proportionate to the productiveness of our soil and our market facilities, than in any State of the Union, and the land holders have really been impoverished by the high prices paid for field labor and the low prices received for their products.

The negroes with us are encouraged to acquire homes, and to-day they own in North Carolina no inconsiderable portion of real estate, considering the fact that their savings are the accumulation of but ten years, and that they have not yet acquired those habits of persevering industry and provident management requisite to the accumulation of property. In our system of agriculture they constitute a fair proportion of the tenantry.

The objection to the possession and use of fire-arms and ammunition by the negroes has been raised in neighborhoods where they have depredated upon the stock of the white people, and this complaint is now, I believe, not at all general, and will be less so as the people of that race become more provident, acquire stock of their own and are morally improved.

It will be seen, therefore, that the people whose politics Governor Vance represents are directly interested in the adoption and success of a policy toward the negro just the opposite of that falsely given out by the Republican prints as the policy or "plan" developed in the speech referred to.

I will give you, as briefly as I can, a sketch of the public services, civil and military, of Governor Vance and Judge Settle.

These gentlemen entered political life together in 1854 as members of the house of commons from their respective counties. Vance was a Union whig. Settle a democrat of the state's rights school; and Mr. Settle signalized his entrance into public life by the introduction of a series of pro-slavery resolutions, of which the following is a specimen:—

"That, in the event the federal government repeal or impair the efficiency of the provisions of the fugitive slave law, or refuse to execute its provisions in good faith, that it will amount to a virtual dissolution of the Union; and it will become the duty of this State to take such measures as may be required for her safety and security."

Vance served one term of two years in the legislature, and Settle three; at the last of which he was elected speaker.

In 1858 Vance was sent to Congress from the strong whig and Union mountain district, and was a Union member at the breaking out of the war.

In 1860, on the assembling of the legislature, strongly democratic, Settle was elected solicitor of the 4th judicial circuit. At the same time Hon. T. L. Clingman was elected for a new term to the United States Senate.

At the beginning of the war, in April, 1861, Vance and Settle both raised companies at their respective homes, and entered the military service of the Confederate States at the same time. Vance was chosen colonel of his regiment and remained in service until the summer of 1862, when he was elected Governor of the State. Settle remained a captain until the reorganization in the spring of 1862 when he came home and again took the office of solicitor.

For the remaining period of the war Vance was governor, and Settle solicitor of his circuit; Vance engaged in executing the laws of North Carolina, passed in conformity with the constitution of the Confederate States, which both had sworn to support; Settle prosecuting under and by the rule of the same authority. I have never heard it alleged that either Governor Vance or Solicitor Settle were unfaithful to the duties they assumed when they took the oath to support the Constitution of the Confederate States, the Constitution of North Carolina, and to obey and execute the laws passed thereunder.

It is matter of record that Settle prosecuted the friends of Confederate deserters for harboring and feeding such. An instance is mentioned wherein some of the State militia, as deserter hunters, were guilty of cruelty to a woman who refused to disclose the whereabouts of her husband; and though Governor Vance says he ordered Solicitor Settle to prosecute those engaged in this assault upon a woman, the Solicitor, it is charged, declined to prosecute and did not prosecute.

The Republicans have sought to make capital out of the fact that Governor Vance has not solicited the negro vote. In the present ignorant condition of the masses of the negro race, and the commerce and corruption of their leading men, it is idle to attempt to detach any considerable portion of them from the political organization controlling the national government and wielding its power and patronage.

As the negroes become educated and grow intelligent they will begin to vote the democratic ticket, and the race will then divide for the same reasons that political divisions exist among white men. At present politics is with the negroes an ideal sentiment. They neither see nor understand any real principle in it, which may in a measure explain to our friends of the great west why they, as the weaker race, adhere together with such persistency.

At the close of the war they were, through secret agencies, made to believe that their old masters desired to re enslave them; that if they voted with the republicans the property of the late insurgents would be confiscated and they would have a portion allotted to them, and when their fears and hopes were thus inspired to hold them in political vassalage the agitation of civil rights and kindred measures in the national legislature gave to designing and desperate leaders further opportunities to mislead and drive them until their religion and politics have become so blended that they are terribly proscriptive and even violent towards members of their own race who renounce their political allegiance.

Until the democratic party secures the reins of government and teaches them by experience the deceptions that are practiced upon them, no reason or persuasion will induce the masses of the southern negroes to forsake the republican party.

The reckless and glaring falsehoods in regard to the speech of Vance, to which you refer, shows that the same tactics are now sought to be adopted by the republicans in the great west, and through prejudice and falsehood to secure their ends. Our people are quiet and unostentatious and hail with pleasure the advent of every northern man among us who comes to help us develope the resources and improve the industries of our State. In other words, like yourselves, they are men of common sense and desire to improve their condition, and they believe that prosperity cannot be secured through violence or agitation.

Very respectfully and truly,
W. R. COX,
Chairman Dem. Ex. State Com.

Triumph of an Editor—A Hint to the Democrats.

The election of Henry Watterson to Congress from Louisville seems to have been an extraordinary event. Fifteen thousand votes were cast, and only five hundred went to his opponent, who was an independent democrat. It was understood that this result was a tribute to a leading journalist, and it shows how much the people are apt to believe in an editor who serves them with honesty and independence. The triumph of Watterson only confirms us in our advice to the Democratic Convention to nominate Manton Marble for Governor. Mr. Marble is also a great journalist like Mr. Watterson, and for years has held aloft with undaunted courage the forlorn banner of the democracy. Now is the time to honor that fidelity and nominate a candidate who will sweep New York as Watterson swept Louisville. All the journalists would support Mr. Marble for professional reasons. All the clergymen would support him because he was, as a journalist, the exponent of sound religious doctrines. John Kelly would support him because John hates Dorsheimer. The ladies would support him because of his personal charms. Mr. Marble is a much handsomer man than Mr. Watterson, and for that matter so is Mr. Dorsheimer. The Democratic ticket, with Marble and Dorsheimer at the head would be an artistic ticket. In that respect it would be much more attractive than the Republican ticket with Evarts and White. Let the Democrats ponder over the success of a great editor in Kentucky, and try their luck with a great editor in New York.—N. Y. Herald.

A Shooting Affair.

[Murfreesboro Enquirer.]

On last Friday morning Mr. George Beale and a negro named George Josey met at the house of a farmer in Northampton. The negro objected to being called a negro, and threatened to shoot Mr. Tally. However, the gun was not loaded. Both parties then went home, near the Cross Locks, where the affray was again commenced. The negro procured a gun and shot at Mr. Beale, not striking him however. Mr. Beale then knocked the negro down with a gun. The negro then made another attempt to shoot Mr. Beale, who struck him again over the head which blow prostrated him. It is thought the negro will die. Mr. Beale was justified in his action, and the only wonder is, he did not shoot the would be murderer.

Medical Students.

Medical students are, like almost all of the young men of our country at this time, needing money and requiring assistance. Every dollar saved is to them a great advantage, and gives them the opportunity of investing these [illegible] books and instruments. We understand that the Trustees and Faculty of the Louisville Medical College (Kentucky) have created a number of Beneficiary Scholarship in behalf of those needing such aid; but all of the facts in regard to the matter can be obtained by addressing a letter to the Louisville Medical College, Louisville, Ky.
